

2007 NJAR[®] LEADERSHIP TEAM

William J. Hanley, President

Bill Hanley is president of the New Jersey Association of REALTORS[®] (NJAR[®]). A broker/manager with Weichert, REALTORS[®] in Metuchen, Hanley has been a member of NJAR[®] since he began his real estate career in 1980.

Over the years, Hanley served NJAR[®] as first vice president, a trustee of the NJAR[®] Housing Opportunity Foundation and as president of the NJAR[®] Educational Foundation. He has volunteered for numerous NJAR[®] committees including: budget and finance, nominating, legislative, strategic planning, and professional standards.

Currently, Hanley is a member of the Middlesex County Association of REALTORS[®] where he served as president in 2002 and 2003, and was named REALTOR[®] of the Year in 2000. He has participated on several committees at the local level, including professional standards, constitution and bylaws, budget and finance, and technology. In addition, Hanley has served as an instructor of the National Association of REALTORS[®] (NAR) Quadrennial Ethics Training course in Middlesex County. On the national level, Hanley is a NAR director where he has participated on the risk management and housing needs committees.

Hanley is a graduate of Westminster Choir College where he received his Bachelor's degree in music education. He currently resides in Somerset, N.J.

Drew S. Fishman, CRS, President-Elect

Drew Fishman, CRS, is president-elect of the New Jersey Association of REALTORS[®] (NJAR[®]). A REALTOR[®] since 1984, Fishman is a broker/sales associate at RE/MAX Atlantic in Northfield, N.J.

Fishman's involvement with NJAR[®] includes serving as first vice president and as professional development division officer. Over the years, he has been a member of the bylaws, budget and finance, communications and public relations, professional development and political affairs committees.

Fishman served two years as president of the Atlantic City & County Board of REALTORS[®]. In 1996, the Atlantic City & County Board of REALTORS[®] selected Fishman as REALTOR[®] of the Year. He was granted the President's Award in 1995.

On a national level, Fishman served as director and delegate for the National Association of REALTORS[®] (NAR), and has participated on several committees including: land use, property rights & environmental, public policy coordinating, and political communications.

Currently, Fishman is a member of the NAR federal district coordinator contact team and is director of the South Jersey Shore Multiple Listing Service, where he served as president in 2006. He is listed in the RE/MAX Hall of Fame and has been featured in the Who's Who Registry of Business Leaders.

Fishman is a resident of Absecon, where he serves as chairman of the planning board, director of the New Jersey Planning Officials, and is active in numerous charities including: Habitat for Humanity, Race for the Cure, Children's Miracle Network, Gilda's House and Children's Seashore House.

Diane E. Dilzell, CRS, e-PRO, First Vice President

Diane Dilzell, CRS, e-PRO, is first vice president of the New Jersey Association of REALTORS® (NJAR®). A REALTOR® since 1989, she is a broker/manager at RE/MAX Pinnacle of Bedminster.

Over the years, Dilzell has served NJAR® as a division officer, chairperson, and member of numerous committees including: strategic issues, budget and finance, cultural diversity, and risk management.

She was named REALTOR® of the Year by the Hunterdon/Somerset Association of REALTORS® in 2002, where she also served as president. She has been active on the finance, by-laws, education, and program committees, in addition to products & services chairperson.

In 2003 and 2004, Dilzell served as president of the Certified Residential Specialist Chapter where she remains active on several committees. She is currently a National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) director where she has served on the cultural diversity and equal opportunity committees.

Dilzell has volunteered for numerous organizations including the Hunterdon Jr. Women's Club, Mary Jacobs Library, Rolling Hills Girls Scout Association, and the Princeton Hockey Parent Association. She continues to volunteer for People for Animals and Habitat for Humanity. Dilzell currently resides in Somerset County and has two children.

Frank W. Anthony, Treasurer

Frank Anthony is treasurer of the New Jersey Association of REALTORS® (NJAR®). A REALTOR® since 1998, Anthony is currently a sales associate at the Coldwell Banker Mendham office. He received his real estate license in 1981 and became a licensed broker in 1988.

Anthony has been an active member of NJAR® as the association operations division officer in 2005, and as a trustee for NJAR® Educational Foundation. He has been active on NJAR® committees including: budget and finance, legal affairs, nominating, and risk management/license law.

An active member of the North Central Jersey Association of REALTORS® (NCJAR), Anthony has held positions as president, treasurer and secretary. He has participated on NCJAR committees including: technology, Multiple Listing Service advisory, strategic planning, and building and grounds. Anthony has served as director at the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR), and has been active on the conventional finance and lending, and state and local issues committees.

In his spare time, Anthony participates in several charities including: Habitat for Humanity, the Marine Corps and Toys for Tots. He resides in Mendham Township with his wife. He has two children and four grandchildren.